

SECOND DAY
(Monday, January 16, 1989)

The Senate met at 11:00 a.m. pursuant to adjournment and was called to order by the President.

The roll was called and the following Senators were present: Armbrister, Barrientos, Bivins, Brooks, Brown, Caperton, Carriker, Dickson, Edwards, Glasgow, Green, Haley, Harris, Henderson, Johnson, Krier, Leedom, Lyon, McFarland, Montford, Parker, Parmer, Ratliff, Santiesteban, Sims, Tejada, Truan, Uribe, Washington, Whitmire, Zaffirini.

A quorum was announced present.

The Reverend Dr. Jack Heacock, First United Methodist Church, Austin, Texas, offered the invocation as follows:

O Thou who art nameless until we name Thee:
We praise Thy name for Your masterful work in designing this great State:
For the fertile high plains and the Ogallala Aquifer,
The rugged beauty of mesquite, prickly pear and sage of South Texas,
For the lush tropical and magical Rio Grande Valley,
For the Big Thicket, the Piney Woods, Balmorhea, Barton Springs and redfish and speckled trout along the Gulf Coast...
For whitewings, whitetails, Spanish doves...
For the Big Bend, the Hill Country and places that we have never heard of.
We also thank You for the Yates Field, Fayette County and the Permian Basin.
You surround us and undergird us with all we need to be good stewards.
O Wondrous Architect of it all, and Final Judge of Accountability, please be kind and merciful to these men and women who gather here to manage the affairs of all Tejanos. We ask them to do the impossible:
To honor those who elected them from a narrow slice of Texas;
To serve the higher goals of the whole State;
To be thoughtful and responsive to the lobbyists who teach them;
And, finally, to be accountable to You.
Help us to remember that You sit, invisibly, in the gallery. Of all the lobbyists, You are the only One who will be there long after adjournment. Help us to remember that Your priorities are always with the poor, the marginalized, the disfranchised and those with no political clout at all. Help us to remember that "as we do it to the least of these", Tejanos, "we do it unto You." We honor the name of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., because he was faithful to Your priorities and paid with his life.

Give these, Your servants, wisdom, courage, grace, patience and judgment; forgive them when they stumble; give them second wind when they fatigue; and guide them to the light.

We pray in the names of Abraham and Sarah, Mohammed, Confucius and Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

On motion of Senator Brooks and by unanimous consent, the reading of the Journal of the proceedings of Wednesday, January 11, 1989, was dispensed with and the Journal was approved.
